Woody Allen's Compromise. September (1987), directed by Woody Allen, is an American family melodrama which, through emotional breakdown, tries to form a cathartic experience. It's a traditional chamber drama, stripped down to essentials, for it happens in only one milieu – a chateau owned by a lonely daughter of an affluent family.

I haven't taken a deep dive into the Brazilian imperial tiaras yet but I think the Braganza Tiara is the only one left from the family because Empress Amélie left it to her sister Queen Josephine of Sweden instead of someone in the Braganza family. That branch of the Portuguese royal family only ruled Brazil from 1822 to 1889 and their reign was turbulent so I don't think much jewelry ...
