It is interesting to note that it is 21 months since anyone contributed to this blog. So domestic CHP might be dying if not actually dead. I have engineered some commercial industrial CHP's and the only clients who make savings are the one who need both the by products, ie lots of heating medium and generated electricity. The electricity can be exported under normal conditions or be used as an ...

Of course, it was not only journalists who raised questions about American society. One of the most popular novels of the nineteenth century, Edward Bellamy’s 1888 Looking Backward, was a national sensation. In it, a man falls asleep in Boston in 1887 and awakens in 2000 to find society radically altered.
