How to find the "Extra" Easter Egg in Last Supper, The (Leonardo da Vinci). This may be quite known, however in Leonardo's painting "The Last Supper" there are more hands than there should be, according to the number of people around the table. Also the extra hand is holding a knife pointed at Jesus. (the hand is...

Oh, also, if you can find it, the rye from Okanagan Spirits of BC is a light spicy rye with sweet notes. It was formerly known as McLoughlin & Steele Rye Whisky, and seems to still be available in the BC Liquor stores by that name, though the distillery has stopped producing it under that name. We were able to get a few bottle by writing to them, apparently they're going to relaunch it again ...

DO - it's a classic scenario of incompetence. They all want different things so cannot reach agreement on an exit plan. The only exit plan that has reached an agreement is that No Deal is not wanted, yet that is looking the most likely outcome now as I don't think the EU elections will change anything in time for the October deadline.

Ahh- the tryptophan thing isn't true at all! Common myth but completely false, people say it a lot about turkey: "eating turkey will make you tired because of the tryptophan", except for the fact that in order to actually consume so much tryptophan that you feel sleepy afterwards (due to tryptophan alone), you'd have to eat upwards of 40 pounds of turkey.

I'm a female IB intern and..surprisingly or not, I've managed to lose weight during my 3 months internship. I realized it only by the end of it, that by walking/running to work every day (while trying to sleep some more and not be late), managing to talk all my male colleagues into a healthy diet (salad for lunch almost every day, to a point that they're nearly more obsessed than me), no ...

Depends how down and about what she's feeling down; it can be as simple as a mid-day text telling her how much she means to me, or just doing like, going full bore on chores so she doesn't have to; it can be making her a special meal, or taking her out to a show; it can be unexpected double-fudge chocolate cake from scratch; really, just something to show her I appreciate her and want her to ...
