Pocket Guide To Public Speaking
I have taken a public speaking course and found the textbook to be subpar, at best. Even worse, is the textbook was a “custom edition” for our university in attempt to curry relevancy with the students.

The Southern Poverty Law Center gathered hundreds of stories of everyday bigotry from people across the United States. They told their stories through e-mail, personal interviews and at roundtable discussions in four cities. People spoke about encounters in stores and restaurants, on streets and in schools. No matter the location or relationship, the stories echo each other.
