

The Summer Without Men

The Summer Without Men

The Summer Without Men is a beautifully written book with many layers. The "Pause" Mia's husband asks for in their marriage (so he can cheat without guilt) that tips her over into madness is just one of them. Aging, coming of age, and female identity and all that it entails are also richly developed themes in the book.

Community Reviews. Aside from being my first novel by new favorite author, The Summer Without Men is also my first contemporary feminist book. And a memorable one at that. The characters are mainly women--Mia the Awesome Protagonist, the Swans in Rolling Meadows, the teen witches of Bonden, Lola the Neighbor-turned-Friend, Bea the Tough Sister,...
